MISS LEITCH NEAR BELLECLAIRE MARK

Finishes Round in 80, With Three Putts on Each of Last Two Greens.

REGAINING TRUE FORM

Defeats Miss Louise Elkins of Oakmont in Invitation Tourney by 8 and 7.

By KERR N. PETRIE.

Those golfers who have been surote the almost overwhelming neasure of success which has attended women players against Miss Cecil Leitch, the British champion, in the he last two weeks had their mystification deepened yesterday by the wonder in the first round of the invitation tournament at Belleclaire. It is quite evident row that the climatic change from Eng-land to the United States has in recent weeks adversely affected Miss Leitch's game. She is only now beginning to touch her true form it would seem in so far at least as it concerns consistent

Miss Leitch in the qualifying round Miss Leltch in the qualifying round want around Belleclaire in $2. Yesterday she lowered this mark by two strokes, but the marvel is not so much in the $0 as the fact that the total was not two or three strokes less. Playing against Miss Louise Elkins of Oakmont, Pittsburgh, Miss Leitch was going so well when she won the match by $0 up and $7$ to play on the eleventh green that she was induced to continue so as to try for a new woman's record for the course. There is a $79 standing to the credit of Mrs. W. A. Gavin. This Miss Leitch should have beaten hazdily in this her second over the course and that she did not is due entirely to the fact that she took three putts on each of the last two greens.

Out in 38 the British champion was Out in 38 the British champion was still only five over 4s when she drove off against the wind for the uphill 525 yard sixteenth. Where in the qualifying round she was within a chip shot on her second so strong was the wind yesterday that she required three woods to reach the corner of the green. Close enough even then to make a 5 well within the bounds of probability Miss Leitch mispudged the strength of the shot. No sooner had the club head connected with the ball than she saw her mistake, However the damage then was irreparable. The ball rolled eight or ten feet beyond the cup and a 6 was the natural outcome.

Three Putts Each on Last Two

Left now with two pairs, a 4 and a 3, for her record card, Miss Leitch drove within a short approach of the 355 yard seventeenth, laid her second within fifteen feet of the cup and then proceeded to take three puts from that distance. She had now a par 3 to tle, but once more she was short on her putting and three strokes on the home green left her card at 50.

The English girl was over the green with a drive and iron on the 419 yard thirteenth, but got her 4. She had made a grand recovery for her 4 after topping her tee shot for the 250 yard twelfth into a trap, but even this was surpassed on the 285 yard fifteenth, when after driving into the bunkers in front of the green she pitched on and holed a twenty-five foot put for her 3. RUNANTELL BEATS NEW YORK HERALD RACING CHART KAI SANG IN STAKE

J. E. Widener's Colt Runs Great Race in the Hartsdale at Empire City.

By HENRY V. KING.

Harry F. Sinclair's Kal-Sanr, the son of The Finn and Kiluna, wnich demonstrated time and again last spring and of The Finn and Kiluna, which demonstrated time and again last spring and summer that he was second only to the invincible Morvich as a two-year-old, was beaten yesterday afternoon at the Empire City track. In the Hartsdale Stakes he finished a length and a half behind Joseph E. Widener's Runantell. Montford Jones's Emotion was third.

It was Kai-Sang's first race since the Saratoga meeting, and it was a good one. He carried 139 pounds and showed all of the speed that earned him a great reputation earlier in the year. But it wasn't good enough to beat Runantell, which shouldered only 110 pounds.

Runantell is far from an ordinary colt. In fact, there are few, if any except Morvich, which are his masters. He is a handsome fellow and the pet of the entire Widener stable. He was bred by Mr. Widener at his farm in Kentucky, being by Broomstick out of Zoola, the dam of Pickwick and Pilgrim. As a yearling and early this year he gave promise of being a wonderful colt, and Tom Welsh, his trainer, was confident he would win many classics. He worked especially fast on numerous occasions, but shortly after each went wrong with some trifting aliment, which kept him out of the races until this fall. In preparation for yesterday's stake he worked phenomenally fast, covering three-eights in 34 seconds without much trouble. So impressive were his trials that Mr. Welsh believed he was capable of beating Morvich if the latter were a starter in yesterday's race.

Mr. Widener Sees Colt Win.

The trainer informed Mr. Widener of the colt's exceptionally fine condition and the Philadelphia sportsman made a special trip from the Quaker City to see him run. And he received a thrill while the race was in progress.

Emotion, Irish Brigadier My Play and Penitent competed in the race, but they were never serious contenders. It was a two horse affair throughout. Kal-Sang broke in motion, but Runantell got away well and before the first fifty yards had been covered they were racing head and head for shead of their opponents. Up the backstretch and around the turn they stepped at a terrific pace, with Kal-Sang's nose sticking out in front. But to those with powerful glasses it could be seen that Kal-Sang was doing his mightlest, while Runantell was under slight restraint.

Just before entering the homestretch Pator, who had the leg up on Kal-Sang, went to the whip. The crowd saw it and yelled, "The favorite is beaten!" But Kal-Sang is a courageous colt, and under the sting of the whip he responded gamely and continued to measure strides with his dangerous opponent. He kept nis nose in front until a furlong from home. Then his heavy weight and his lack of racing began to tell and the Widener coit began to draw away. At the end Runantell was running easily, while Kal-Sang was staggering.

The race undoubtedly will do Kal-Sang a lot of good, but it is not likely he can give Runantell twenty pounds and a beating, even if he reaches his top form.

After the race Mr. Widener and his trainer were showered with congratulations, and five minutes later Mr. Widener was on his way back to Philadelphia.
